

Sans Souci

45ft Traditional Stern, currently used as a day boat, unconventional layout

Armstrong Siddeley engine.
Stephill 6kva generator

£24,000

1984 Traditional narrowboat built by Peter Nicholls with an unconventional layout. Currently used as a day boat with a Armstrong Siddeley engine, generator.

Layout: Stern, rear cabin, engine room, toilet, galley, saloon, door to foredeck.

Rear Cabin: 2 bench seats/2 single berths.

Engine Room: Armstrong Siddeley Motors engine, Stephill 6kva generator, battery chargers, side hatch.

Toilet: Porta potti, wash basin.

Galley: Waeco fridge, Panasonic microwave, electric hob, sink & drainer, cupboards, shelves, drawers.

Saloon: Table, chairs, door to foredeck.

Specification: Sans Souci

Dimensions:

Length 45' / Beam 6'10"

Hull Builder:

Peter Nicholls

Fit Out:

Owner (2011)

Berths:

2 singles

Engine:

1950's Armstrong Siddeley AS1 (7hp-11hp), aircooled

Generator: 6 kva Stephill generator, aircooled

Gear Box:

Parsons 1955

Bowthruster:

Yes (fitted 2014)

Batteries:

1 engine, 2 domestic, 2 bowthruster, 1 HD generator

Water Heating:

No hot water. Cold water only

Blacking:

2016

Anodes:

Not stated

Engine Service:

Not stated

B.S.C: 2020

Solid oak flooring

£24,000